In partnership with

Dear Colleagues,

Greetings from Indian Health Care Quality Forum !

Indian Health Care Quality Forum, is a Not For Profit organization, having sole objective of promotion of quality and safety in health care delivery system in India. Since its inception, IHCQF has been organizing conclaves and health care quality circles to meet this objective.

IHCQF is now pleased to announce 2nd International Health Care Quality Conclave, being organized on September 12th and 13th , 2008 at Tivoli Garden Resorts, New Delhi. The theme of the conclave is :

"Enabling Safety In Healthcare Organizations"

- Patient Safety
- Healthcare Workers Safety
- Environment Safety

The conclave is being held in partnership with Quality Council of India (QCI) and Joint Commission International (JCI). The event would be followed by a Post Conference Workshop on JCI standards and their application on 14th and 15th September, 2008.

A special highlight of the event would be launching of PARTNERS IN SAFETY campaign, a joint initiative of IHCQF and BD India along with all important stake holders in health care delivery. The aim is to encourage all stake holders to participate in a non competitive way towards ensuring safety in health care delivery, which is the common goal of all.

Your presence would be a real source of professional dignity and strength to the conclave and would add immense value to the conference by sharing of knowledge and experience. We look forwards to having you and your colleagues with us at this international event, which we hope will initiate a move towards achieving SAFETY FOR ALL.

● About Delhi

Delhi stands at the western end of the Gangetic Plain, flanked by the states of Uttar Pradesh and Haryana. Travellers to Delhi get two cities for the price of one. 'Old' Delhi, the capital of Islamic India between the mid-17th and late 19th centuries, is full of legacies of its Mughal past, including the massive Red Fort and the majestic Jama Masjid. It's a lively area of colourful bazaars, narrow streets and barely controlled chaos. In contrast, New Delhi, the imperial city created during the British Raj, is composed of spacious, tree-lined avenues and imposing government buildings, and has a sense of order.
